

TEMPORARY ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

In the event the superintendent is to be absent and/or unavailable, prior to his/her absence, he/she will designate another administrator to serve as acting superintendent during the absence with notification to the School Board chair.

In the event that the superintendent is disabled or otherwise unavailable to serve, the School Board Chairperson will assign a temporary acting superintendent until an emergency meeting of the School Board can be convened. The emergency meeting must be held within 48 hours. The Board will then assign an acting superintendent for a temporary period of time.
